

In The News

06/27/2005

Nascor Technologies' President quoted in the 2005 HP World Invitation

Nascor Technologies received mention in the 2005 HP World Wireless and Mobile Forum e-Invitation. The invitation was distributed in June 2005 for the event taking place in August 2005 in San Francisco, California.

Read the invitation

HP World is the largest independent HP-centric technical training event in the Americas and features industry leading educational content that has been carefully developed by technologists for technologists.

05/18/2005

Nascor Technologies at the 2005 Wireless & Mobile WorldExpo

Nascor Technologies will be present at the 2005 Wireless & Mobile WorldExpo to be held from May 18-19th at the National Trade Center, at Exhibition Place, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Feel free to approach us with any comments or questions you may have!

The 2005 Wireless & Mobile WorldExpo is the global meeting place for the wireless industry, attracting key decision-makers, to learn and purchase the latest products and solutions, offered by innovative technology vendors and service providers. As a leading global event to focus on the latest wireless and mobile technologies and their enterprise applications, the 2005 Wireless & Mobile WorldExpo will focus on the hottest technologies.

02/01/2004

Nascor Technologies joins the Canadian-Dominican Chamber of Commerce (CCDC)

The CCDC is an independent non-profit organization with a mandate to contribute to the promotion and fostering of bilateral trade, investment, and cultural relations between Canada and the Dominican Republic, and has been actively involved in Canadian and Dominican business, educational and cultural development since its inauguration in 1987.

Featured organization with the Canadian-Dominican Chamber of Commerce